WELCOME

Croeso

In the heart of Bannau Brycheiniog on the basin of the picturesque Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal, Theatr Brycheiniog is warm and welcoming, offering an ambitious programme of professional and community performances and events.

Theatr Brycheiniog's varied and popular productions attract regular audiences from Brecon, South Powys and across Wales and the UK

Hello/Shwmae

I am delighted to be joining the team at Theatr Brycheiniog at the start of 2025, helping to move forward plans to enhance the programming and operations, thanks to an additional grant from the Arts Council of Wales, and to deliver the season of performances featured in this brochure.

This season offers a range of performances for all ages and interests. The music goes from the cadet forces in the 25th Annual Rorke's Drift Concert to the BBC National Orchestra of Wales, taking in taiko drumming and folk along way. Alongside that are tributes to favourites such as Simon and Garfunkel and Santana. Drama explores topics such as 'Water Wars', by Company of Sirens, and cross-generational friendship in Vamos Theatre's 'Boy on the Roof'. For our younger audiences, 'A Big Egg' and 'Detective Dog' bring to life much-loved childrens' books. We continue to screen classic works from Royal Ballet and Opera too.

It's a real pleasure to work with the staff here, having witnessed their commitment to the Theatr and to you - the audiences, participants and artists. I look forward to seeing much more!

Nic Young
Interim Theatre Director

Sir John Lloyd Lecture Gentry Families & their Poets in Late-Medieval Brecon

The fourteenth to sixteenth centuries were the high point of Welsh praise poetry to the families of local gentry, the uchelwyr. This lecture traces some of the history of the lordship of Brecon and its neighbours through the poetry composed to its networks of gentry families, including the Herberts, Games, and Vaughans.

Presented by Professor Helen Fulton, Chair in Medieval Literature at the University of Bristol.

Water Wars by Company of Sirens

"Who owns the rain?"

Water Wars is a powerful and visceral eco-thriller which delves into a dystopian near future, where global water shortages spark political conflict and personal betrayals. As communities are torn apart by dwindling resources, the play questions humanity's priorities, the price of survival, and the impact of environmental degradation on the fabric of society.

With its hard-hitting, uncompromising blend of suspense, political intrigue, and deeply personal stories, the production is set to engage audiences and spark important conversations about sustainability, ownership, and the future of our existence.

Friends & Patrons

We've listened to the feedback from our valued Friends, Patrons and audiences, and we are now excited to announce the relaunch of our Friends & Patrons scheme.

Theatr Brycheiniog's location is unique – surrounded by the idyllic landscapes of Bannau Brycheiniog and sitting within one of the UK's highest quality Dark Skies Reserves.

We want to celebrate our connection with the environment, so we have named our three Friends level schemes after the three highest peaks in the glorious Bannau Brycheiniog mountain range – Pen y Fan, Corn Du and Cribyn.

Our Patrons Scheme is called 'Seren' to acknowledge the Dark Skies Reserve and the captivating constellations that shine on our amazing theatre.

DONATE

Did you know we are a registered charity?

You can support us and help to continue igniting the creativity of the next generation, unite communities across Mid Wales and the surrounding areas, empower artists and share all the joys of theatre by donating. Any amount, large or small, will be hugely appreciated.

You can donate via our website www.brycheiniog.co.uk/en/support-us, by becoming a Friend or Patron, via our foyer donation box or by text donation.

To donate by text, simply text THEATR B followed by your donation amount to 70450. Texts will cost the donation amount plus one standard network rate message. Thank you for your support.

Registered charity no. 1005327.

RELAXED PERFORMANCES

These are adaptations of the show specifically designed for anyone who may find the typical theatre experience overwhelming or who would benefit from a more relaxed environment.

During a relaxed performance house lights are left on and strobe lighting is removed and loud noises are taken out or reduced. Making noise during the performance is not discouraged and the audience is free to go in and out as needed. We also provide a breakout space in the gallery if audience members need time away from the main event.

FAMILY FRIENDLY

Theatres are not traditionally seen as a baby or child friendly space but here at Theatr Brycheiniog we are on a mission to change that. Our programme regularly includes shows for younger audiences and we do our best to make sure that we provide the ideal space for your family to feel comfortable and enjoy some live theatre. These shows are also listed as 'relaxed performances', this means that not only do we 'relax' the conventional rules for our audience but it means you can 'relax' and enjoy the performance too.

Babes in arms under two attend free of charge.

HYNT

Theatr Brycheiniog is proud to support the HYNT Scheme. Members of the scheme are able to bring a carer for free to most performances (excluding hires). HYNT believes that art and culture is for everyone and if you have an impairment or a specific access requirement, going to the theatre should still be easy and accessible.
