A Warm Welcome from Sara St George

Chief Executive

I have been given such a warm welcome by both the artists who perform here and the audiences who support us, and it has been a real pleasure to become part of this wonderful venue. Of course, none of this would be possible without our incredible team; I am deeply grateful to our hard-working staff and dedicated volunteers whose passion ensures every performance runs smoothly. I was delighted to begin my role just as our new sound system was installed, and it's already making a remarkable difference to the live experience.

Our upcoming season is packed with special moments. A major highlight is the only Welsh date on the UK tour of Private Peaceful, a deeply moving adaptation of Michael Morpurgo's beloved novel that you won't want to miss.

We are also delighted to continue our wonderful partnership with Theatre na nŌg. They'll be bringing us their engaging show, We Need Bees, with performances in both Welsh and English. It's a fantastic, fun, and thought-provoking experience perfect for families and our younger explorers.

Music takes centre stage as we welcome the Brecon Jazz Festival. We are thrilled to host the legendary Courtney Pine, whose vibrant jazz fusion is set to create a truly memorable weekend right here in the heart of town. If you love local heritage, don't miss Dramatic Brycheiniog: 3000 Years of Theatre in Brecon. This permanent exhibition on our second floor is a wonderful celebration of our community's rich creative history.

Finally, I want to share a heartfelt thank you to our Friends and Patrons. Your support is truly invaluable. It allows us to deliver our wide-reaching community programme, create vital opportunities for young people, and bring outstanding professional touring work to our stage. If you have not joined us yet, please go online or ask our Box Office for more details.

I warmly invite you to join us this season to experience the excitement, creativity, and community spirit that make Theatre B! such a special place for us all.

Sara St George
Chief Executive Officer

Dramatic Brycheiniog: 3000 years of Theatre in Brecon

For over three thousand years, people in this corner of Wales have come together to perform, to listen, to laugh and to feel. Long before Theatr Brycheiniog existed, there was music, poetry, ritual and story; passed between people, generation to generation.

That tradition is alive today. And this exhibition is your invitation into it.

Step inside and immerse yourself in 3,000 years of performance, from Celtic roots to Georgian stages, and the remarkable women, including world-famous actress Sarah Siddons, who shaped it all.

FAMILY FRIENDLY

Theatres are not traditionally seen as a baby or child friendly space but here at Theatr Brycheiniog we are on a mission to change that. Our programme regularly includes shows for younger audiences and we do our best to make sure that we provide the ideal space for your family to feel comfortable and enjoy some live theatre. These shows are listed as 'relaxed' or 'family friendly' performances, this means that not only do we 'relax' the conventional rules for our audience but it means you can 'relax' and enjoy the performance too. Babes in arms under two attend free of charge.
