DYNAMIC PRICING

Along with having new seats we have brought in dynamic pricing, as we understand which seats and rows are our most popular, and to support our audiences we will use this knowledge to bring down the cost of coming to shows in other seats where we can.

We list the lowest standard price but we do have concession prices and different prices on more popular seating areas. Each ticket has a 75p booking fee. Please have a look at our website or contact box office for more detailed pricing on each event.

To help audiences book earlier we have created a new B!Early ticket discount, this applies 3+ months in advance of most shows. Look out for the B!Early logo.

To operate more smoothly we need to reduce the number of tickets that we sell on the day, so you'll also notice that ticket prices increase the closer to the show we get, we would much rather you book early.

FOOD & DRINK

Cafe & Bar

Theatr Brycheiniog are delighted to welcome you to our new cafe space where you will be able to order all your favourites in an attractive new environment.

We have coffee from Black Mountain Roast along with a selection of cakes that suit all tastes, we have started stocking Heartsease drinks and will have a selection of paninis and sandwiches during lunchtime.

with lunch served from 12-2.30

Why not come and say hello and enjoy a drink sitting outside on our new outdoor furniture while watching the canal activities go by. We always welcome hikers, bikers and paws.

PRE-SHOW & INTERVAL

Refreshments

The Theatr bar opens at least 45 minutes before the show time, and for sell-out shows we open even earlier, so why not come down to soak up the atmosphere.

We've been delighted with the response we've had from all our audiences to the new style, seating and feel, but after two years of missed shows a busy night is quite a shock to the system!

To help us, and to ease congestion (and waiting time) please try, where you can, to pre-order your interval drinks. You can do this by filling out a slip and placing the order with the bar before the show starts.

Order slips can be found on the bar, at box office or on the glass quadrant in the bar.

The bar opens at least 45 mins prior to each show

Madama Butterfly Live

'Love cannot kill: it brings new life'.

On a starlight night in Nagasaki, these are the words spoken by American naval officer Pinkerton to young geisha Cio-Cio-San. But as they both learn, words and promises carelessly spoken can have indelible consequences. With a score that includes Butterfly's aria, 'Un bel dì, vedremo' ('One fine day') and the 'Humming Chorus', Giacomo Puccini's opera is entrancing and ultimately heart-breaking. Moshe Leiser and Patrice Courier's exquisite production takes inspiration from 19th-century European images of Japan.

Black RAT Productions are back in theatres at last and to celebrate they have created a wonderfully original take on HG Wells' classic sci-fi horror.

It is Wales, 1933. The Invisible Man starring Claude Rains is terrifying cinema audiences worldwide. The very small workforce of the Aberllanencwm Workingman's Hall, which doubles up as bingo hall and cinema, are welcoming audiences excited for a screening of the newly released Invisible Man. Due to technical difficulties the cinema employees are forced to tell the tale themselves. Events unfurl and strange things begin to happen. Are they simply coincidences or as a result of the invisible man himself?!

Performed by an incredible cast of four and with plenty of audience involvement, this new production is packed with physical comedy, song, improvisation, magic and illusion in this re-telling of the HG Well's classic brought to life in typical Black RAT style. Supported by Arts Council of Wales.

By HG Wells.

Presented by Black RAT Productions and Blackwood Miners' Institute. A brand-new comedy written & directed by Richard Tunley. Designed by Sean Crowley. Lighting Design by Robin Bainbridge.

Motherhood isn't just paying a photographer to take a perfect photo of your bundle of joy curled up in a basket. Priscilla Queen of the Disaster is brutally honest about being a mum. With tears streaming down your face, laugh along with the sometimes savage experiences that can be motherhood and face up to letting go of what we all thought it would be. Who knows, if we share the s*** we might all feel better.

After a very long break we are proud to present to you the UK Premier of this ballet company from Moldova with dancers from all over the world including soloist from Ukraine.

Every child's favourite fairy-tale, Sleeping Beauty is the classic story of love and innocence, mystery and magic set to Tchaikovsky's sublime score. Stunning choreography, sumptuous costumes and wonderful sets form the fantasy world in which the Lilac Fairy struggles against the evil Carabosse.

Outline based on the fairy-tale by Charles Perrault, the Sleeping Beauty tells of the Princess Aurora, cursed at her christening by the evil Carabosse to prick her finger one day on a spindle and die. Thanks to the timely intervention of the Lilac Fairy, she doesn't die, but sleeps for a hundred years. Woken by a prince, who has battled through the Enchanted Forest to reach her, they marry at a ceremony attended by nursery rhyme characters like Puss in Boots and all the other forest creatures.

There are no scores more successful in supporting the full range of ballet than those by Tchaikovsky. Highlights include the Famous 'Rose Adagio' when Princess Aurora is introduced to four princes. A wonderful evening out and memories which you will cherish long after the final curtain falls.

Never Give Up is a strong political statement about the harrowing terror of attacks in Europe and Turkey, and the need for freedom and peace. Harsh percussive motifs jar with screeching woodwind passages to depict the horrors, before concluding more optimistically with birdsong, waves and traditional Turkish rhythms.

Fascinated with the way Beethoven takes a micro-motif and turns it into a great masterpiece, along with an interest in particle physics and the way high energy collisions behave, Fabien Waksman's Protonic Games takes seven motifs from Beethoven's Seventh Symphony and uses these as the particles which collide and transform. An explosive opening gives way to a melting chorale, before journeying through to an ecstatic solar chord finish. Given Waksman's homage to Beethoven's Seventh Symphony, it is only fitting that we conclude this concert with the original

Festival

Lutheran Masses

This year's festival opens in Brecon Cathedral with two of JS Bach's beautiful Lutheran Masses, also known as Missae Breves or Short Masses. Join Rachel Podger, Brecon Baroque, the ever-popular vocal ensemble group I Fagiolini and young singers, Nouvelle Fague for this beautiful programme directed by Robert Holligworth.

JS Bach held the position of Thomaskantor (cantor at St Thomas' church) in Leipzig from the mid-1720s from where he composed Latin polyphonic music for the principal Lutheran churches of the city. These two beautiful works, written during this time, are for the most part parody works based on cantata movements so may feel reassuringly familiar but with a twist.

The programme starts with the most plangent Monteverdi mini-masterworks but finishes with a virtuosic sound effect-riddled comedy about a hunt. Along the way, the singers perform Britten's tragi-comic collection of modern madrigals on medieval texts, Eight Medieval Lyrics, Sacred & Profane, which are both biting and surreal as well as three quite brilliant Henry Purcell songs, Urge Me No More, Music for a While plus the light-hearted, When the Cock Begins to Crow. An afternoon not to be missed!

Claudio Monteverdi – Lamento della ninfa Piagn'è sospira, lo mi son giovenetta.

Henry Purcell - Urge me no more, Music for a While, When the Cock Begins to Crow.

Benjamin Britten - Eight Medieval Lyrics, Sacred & Profane

The original barracks were built at the Watton in 1805 and it was from here that troops were despatched to the Battle of Rorke's Drift during the Anglo-Zulu War in 1879. ## O Lovely Day / O Holder Tag

Join Rachel Podger and Brecon Baroque for an evening of cantatas and concerti by JS Bach and JL Bach. Rachel plays JS Bach's hugely popular Italian Concerto, originally written for a 2-manual harpsicord. This is a special arrangement for solo violin, arranged by Rachel's friend and colleague, Chad Kelly, with whom she previously collaborated for Brecon Baroque's Goldberg Variations. Violinist Huw Daniel joins Rachel for JL Bach's less well-known but cheerful Double Violin Concerto in D major. Rowan Pierce sings two pieces from the cousins' Leipzig years. JS Bach's wedding Cantata 210 'O lovely day/O holder tag' is the title piece for this joyful evening of music and JL Bach's beautiful aria 'Meine Seele erhebt den Herrn', from a sacred cantata for the Feast of Visitation. Finally, Brecon Baroque performs a special instrumental version JS Bach's Cantata 249, a work originally written for Easter Sunday and later reinvented as the Easter Oratorio.

JS Bach: Italian Concerto, BWV 971, in an arrangement by Chad Kelly, JS Bach: Cantata 210/O holder Tag, erwünschte Zeit.

Johann Ludwig Bach: Double violin concerto in D major.

Johann Ludwig Bach Aria: Meine Seele erhebt den Herrn (from Canata Der Herr wird ein Neues in Laude erschaffen).

JS Bach: Cantata 249.

Oye Santana

Based around the exciting dance rhythms of Santana's Latin music, OYE SANTANA is no ordinary tribute to Carlos Santana's music. More a party than a concert, this is a feast of Latin music, superb musicianship and hit songs, faithfully re-creating the music of Santana. They bring a powerful and melodic drive to Santana's Latin rock style, which they play with power, passion and perfection ensuring a fantastic high energy, engaging and fun event.

The music of Carlos Santana is a mixture of Samba, Smooth Latin ballads, Boss a Novas and Latin style rock. Oye Santana play all the hits including the Grammy award-winning Smooth plus Maria Maria, She's Not There, Black Magic Woman, Samba Pa Ti, Oye Como Va, Jingo and Corazon Espinado.

The six-piece band line up consists of a superb "Carlos Santana" who looks and sounds identical to the great man himself. Top-notch Spanish and English speaking vocalists compliment them. Their blend of electric and Spanish guitar songs blend perfectly with the authentic percussion section and virtuoso keyboards. The exuberance of the performance itself is what wins the hearts (and the dancing feet) of audiences from Salsa evenings to sold-out theatres; from intimate parties to thronging festivals; from the UK to events all over Europe.

Above all, it's the audience reaction that tells you that Oye Santana is special. Close your eyes and you can't tell the difference, said one promoter; the best tribute band I've seen said another. But from their very first gig 10 years ago, people have been commenting on the sheer fun Oye Santana bring to every stage they play on.

THEATR B! IS FAMILY FRIENDLY

Theatres are not traditionally seen as a baby or child friendly space but at Theatr Brycheiniog we are on a mission to change that. Our programme regularly includes shows for younger audiences and we do our best to make sure that we provide the ideal space for your family to feel comfortable and enjoy some live theatre. These shows are also listed as 'relaxed performances', this means that not only do we 'relax' the conventional rules for our audience but it means you can 'relax' and enjoy the performance too.
